Steeds verder weg Helena Fox 2019-07-22 Een indringend verhaal dat je direct wilt herlezen Biz lijkt een gewone tiener; ze woont bij haar moeder en ze maakt deel uit van een grote vriendengroep waar ze niet helemaal zichzelf kan zijn, maar ze hoort tenminste ergens bij. Ze twijfelt over haar seksualiteit en niemand mag dan ook weten dat ze met haar beste vriendin heeft gezoend. Maar Biz praat met haar vader, die er eigenlijk niet zou moeten zijn, want hij is dood. En dus vertelt ze niemand over hem. Ze vertelt ook niemand over de duistere gedachten die door haar hoofd spoken. Biz zweeft als het ware door het leven – tussen goed, oké en normaal in. Dan gebeurt er iets waardoor Biz totaal de weg kwijtraakt. Ze verliest alle aansluiting met haar vrienden. Haar vader verdwijnt, en met hem alles wat veilig en zeker is. Biz besluit dat het misschien makkelijker, beter, fijner is om helemaal weg te zweven. Of misschien moet ze wat langer blijven om haar vader terug te vinden. Of misschien – misschien, misschien – is er een andere optie die Biz nog niet kan zien. Steeds verder weg is een indringend verhaal over verdriet, vriendschap, jezelf kwijtraken en de lastige weg terug omhoog uit de diepste put waar je nooit in terecht wilde komen. 'Zo nu en dan pak je een boek op en weet je dat je iets geweldigs hebt gevonden. Een glorieuze stem, een personage waarvan je gaat houden. Helena Fox levert. Het is voortreffelijk. Lees het.' Cath Crowley, auteur van Donkerblauwe Woorden 'Een adembenemend, diep ontroerend verhaal over verdriet, verlies en liefde. Helena Fox is een auteur om in de gaten te houden!' Kathleen Glasgow, auteur van Girl in Pieces 'Onmogelijk mooi, levensbevestigend, diepzinnig. Dit is geen boek; het is een kunstwerk.' Kerry Kletter, auteur van The First Time She Drowned
